Condolence Resolution.

President.—Hon'ble Members of the Cochin Legislative Council, I hope you will agree with me that, on this occasion of the first meeting of the Legislative Council after the lamented demise of Her Highness the late Valiamma Tampuran, it is our solemn duty to give expression to our profound grief and convey to His Highness the Maharaja of Cochin and the Members of the Cochin Ruling Family our heart-felt condolence and sympathy. This sad event, you all know, took place on Wednesday, the 16th of Makaram 1105 corresponding to the 29th of January 1930. I will, therefore, beseech you all to permit me to move a resolution of condolence about the sad event, and I have no doubt that this resolution will be carried unanimously, all the Members of the Council standing.

All the Members stood up and the resolution was carried unanimously.
